

A third disruptive act may result in the disruptive person being removed from the meeting.

If the meeting is repeatedly disrupted the Board Chair may, at his/her discretion, clear the meeting room and continue with discussion of items that are on the published agenda.

5) In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (